ACTUAL TIME: 1:04 P.M.

Staff's update on the State's 2017 Housing Legislation Package (AB 678, SB 167, SB 35, and SB 166.)

Tava Ostrenger, Assistant City Attorney, gave the Staff presentation. Rosie Dyste and Jessica Metzger, Project Planners, were available to answer questions.

Public comment opened at 1:44 p.m., and as no one wished to speak, it closed.

HOUSING ACCOUNTABILITY ACT (Assembly Bill 678/Senate Bill 167):

Commissioner comments:

- The phrase Public Health and Safety may need to be handled on a case-by-case basis.
- The term Deemed Complete is vexing.
- RHNA and any other acronyms used by the City should be defined for the public.
- It is unclear if the phrase reduction in density is broad or more specific, and that should be looked into.

HOUSING STREAMLINING (Senate Bill 35, Senate 166):Commissioner comments:

- Consider additional mapping to further identify specific areas where SB 35 could apply.
- Outreach and education to advise the public on what is available to them is important.

CLOSING REMARKS:Commissioner comments:

- The new housing requirements can be seen as a win-win for the City if done right.
- We need to streamline the process for applicants and get away from the current culture of not wanting to approve projects.
- The goal of this should be to comply with legislation while doing everything we can to educate the public and take out the barriers of time and uncertainty.
- While these housing laws are an attempt to solve the housing crisis, they can potentially lead to a livability crisis or an economic viability crisis. This city has been built on tourism, how it looks and feels, and we are having a box put over us that applies to some of the biggest cities in California and are being told we get to comply the same way those metropolises do.
- Certainty for the public, City Planners, City Councilmembers, staff, and applicants is paramount for a successful community socially as well as economically and still maintaining what is good about Santa Barbara.
- Having objective standards, not only for SB 35, but having a checklist of objective standards for all projects so that we take some of the qualitative standards out to a degree will be a big part of this effort.
- Housing shortage is a longtime issue in Santa Barbara, and as long as it is a desirable place to live, we will have a housing shortage.
- There is a need to improve the public's understanding of the crisis we are in, the new laws that we have, and how we can meet our housing needs and our RHNA housing numbers, yet keep Santa Barbara special.
- Public outreach is a critical component.
